SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT
APIs for Adobe Experience Manager Mobile On-demand Services

By downloading, copying, installing or using the software of Adobe or its subsidiaries you ("Licensee") agree to the following terms and conditions. If you do not agree with such terms and conditions, do not use the software. This agreement shall apply only to the software to which you have obtained a valid license regardless of whether other software is referred to or described herein. Your rights under this agreement may be subject to additional terms and conditions in a separate agreement that supplement or supersede the terms presented below.

1. DEFINITIONS

1.1 “Adobe” means Adobe Systems Incorporated, a company incorporated in Delaware, 345 Park Avenue, San Jose, California 95110 if this agreement is entered into while Licensee is in the United States, Canada or Mexico; otherwise, it means Adobe Systems Software Ireland Limited, 4-6 Riverwalk, Citywest Business Campus, Dublin 24, Ireland.

1.2 “API Key” means the AEM Mobile access credential assigned to Licensee’s Adobe ID and used by Adobe to associate and authenticate Licensee’s AEM Mobile API activity and Licensee Products and Services.

1.3 “Confidential Information” means (A) any developer credentials (such as passwords, keys and client IDs); and (B) any Feedback.

1.4 “AEM Mobile” means the Adobe Experience Manager Mobile On-demand Services, including HTML tags, Javascript code, object code, plugins, SDKs, APIs or other code provided by Adobe for Adobe Experience Manager – Mobile On-demand Services.

1.5 “AEM Mobile APIs” means the AEM Mobile application programming interface, header, jar files and any accompanying or related documentation made available at https://helpx.adobe.com/content/help/en/digital-publishing-solution/help/integrating-dps.html (or other URLs specified by Adobe) that facilitates access to, and interoperation with AEM Mobile.

1.6 “Feedback” means feedback on AEM Mobile, the AEM Mobile APIs any other Adobe products and services such as requests for additional features or functionality, evaluations, usability, software or hardware compatibility, interoperability, performance, bug reports, test results and documentation requirements.

1.7 “Licensee Products and Services” means the Licensee’s software applications or hosted services that use the AEM Mobile APIs and make use of AEM Mobile.

1.8 “PII” means personally identifiable information.

2. LICENSES AND RESTRICTIONS

2.1 License Grant from Adobe. Subject to Licensee’s compliance with the terms of this Agreement, Adobe grants to Licensee, during the License Term, a non-exclusive, non-transferable, royalty-free, limited license to use and make calls to the AEM Mobile APIs solely to develop, implement, distribute and provide access to the Licensee Products and Services.

2.2 Using the AEM Mobile APIs: Licensee will

(A) require its Licensee Products and Services end users to comply with (and not knowingly enable them to violate) any applicable law, regulation and this Agreement.
(B) comply with all applicable law, regulation, and third party rights (including without limitation laws regarding the import or export of data or software, privacy and local laws). Licensee will not use the AEM Mobile APIs to encourage or promote illegal activity or violation of third party rights.

(C) only access (or attempt to access) a AEM Mobile API by the means described in the documentation of that AEM Mobile API. Licensee may be required to create and use an Adobe ID or Enterprise ID and online developer account profile with the required account information in order to obtain an API Key. Licensee must keep its account profile up to date with current account information, including current account information at all times. Adobe may deny Licensee’s requests to access AEM Mobile APIs or revoke the assigned API Key if Adobe believes that Licensee’s account information has become outdated or if Adobe believes that Licensee is in violation of this agreement. Licensee will not share the API Key, will keep the API Key secure and will use it as the sole means of accessing the AEM Mobile API.

(D) use commercially reasonable efforts to protect user information collected by the Licensee Products and Services, including PII, from unauthorized access or use and will promptly report to Licensee’s end users any unauthorized access or use of such information as required by applicable law. Adobe may review the Licensee Products and Services for compliance with this agreement and to identify security issues that could affect Adobe or its users; and

(E) not send any PII to Adobe. If Licensee collects PII through the Licensee Products and Services, Licensee will (1) comply with all applicable privacy laws and regulations; (2) post a privacy notice that Licensee makes easily accessible to end users from within the Licensee Products and Services in which Licensee clearly and accurately describes Licensee’s practices for collecting, using and sharing end user PII with Adobe and third parties; and (3) respect Licensee’s end users’ privacy and honor and adhere to Licensee’s privacy notice commitments. If Licensee’s privacy notice is used to comply with the EU Data Protection Directive, then it must adhere to the US Safe Harbor principles at http://www.export.gov/safeharbor/eu/eg_main_018475.asp.

2.3 Prohibited Use. Licensee must not (or allow those acting on Licensee’s behalf to):

(A) rent, lease, sublicense, assign, or transfer Licensee’s rights in a AEM Mobile API for use by a third party;

(B) create software to function similar to the AEM Mobile API or any products or services substantially similar as the AEM Mobile APIs;

(C) use AEM Mobile APIs in any manner that could damage, disable, overburden, or impair the AEM Mobile APIs, any Adobe server, or the network(s) connected to any Adobe server or interfere with any other party’s use and enjoyment of AEM Mobile;

(D) attempt to gain unauthorized access to AEM Mobile, materials, other accounts, computer systems or networks connected to any Adobe server or to the AEM Mobile APIs, through hacking, password mining, or any other means;

(E) engage in any systematic extraction of data or data fields, including without limitation email addresses;

(F) disclose, harvest, or otherwise collect information, including email addresses, or other private information about any third party without that party’s express consent;
(G) adapt, alter, modify, translate, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble (except to the extent that this restriction is expressly prohibited by law), or create derivative works from or based upon any part of the AEM Mobile APIs or any services accessed;

(H) circumvent any limitations Adobe places on Licensee’s use of the AEM Mobile APIs (e.g., limiting the number of API requests that Licensee may make or the number of users Licensee may serve). Adobe may limit the number of calls accepted by the AEM Mobile API if Adobe believes that the number of call may negatively impact the AEM Mobile APIs or AEM Mobile;

(I) introduce a virus, worm, Trojan Horse, or other harmful software code or similar files that may damage the operation of a third party’s computer or property or information;

(J) merge, integrate, or use the AEM Mobile APIs, or any portion, with any software that is subject to license terms that require any Adobe intellectual property to be licensed to or otherwise shared with any third party (for example only, GPL license terms); or

(K) defraud, defame, abuse, harass, stalk, threaten, or otherwise violate the legal rights (such as rights of privacy and publicity) of others.

2.4 Monitoring. Licensee agrees that Adobe may monitor use of the AEM Mobile APIs to ensure quality, monitor usage and improve AEM Mobile and verify Licensee’s compliance with these terms. This monitoring may include Adobe accessing and use the Licensee Products and Services to identify security issues that could affect Adobe or its users. Licensee may not interfere with this monitoring.

3. ADOBE CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

3.1 Non-Disclosure. Licensee agrees to hold the Confidential Information in strict confidence and not disclose it to any other party; provided, however, that Licensee may disclose Confidential Information to employees and authorized contractors of Licensee (A) with a need to know such Confidential Information and (B) that have each signed a written agreement with Licensee containing confidentiality obligations consistent with those set forth in this Agreement. Licensee will treat Confidential Information with the same degree of care as it accords to its own confidential information, but in no event with less than reasonable care.

3.2 Obligations of Licensee. Licensee’s obligations with respect to the Confidential Information are in effect in perpetuity. Licensee agrees that it will:

(A) not obtain any rights to any ideas or concepts embodied within the Confidential Information that may be retained in intangible form by individuals who have had access to the Confidential Information;

(B) use the Confidential Information only for the Licensee Products and Services as stated in this Agreement and for so long as authorized in this Agreement;

(C) notify Adobe immediately upon discovery of any unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information; and

(D) cooperate with Adobe in every reasonable way and at Adobe’s request to help Adobe regain possession of the Confidential Information and/or prevent its further unauthorized use by Licensee’s employees and former employees.

4. EVALUATION FEEDBACK.
If Licensee provides Feedback, Licensee grants to Adobe a non-exclusive, irrevocable, worldwide, royalty-free, sublicenseable and transferable license to use, copy, publicly display, modify, publicly perform, publish and reproduce the Feedback.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Adobe and its licensors own AEM Mobile, the AEM Mobile APIs and any content that is accessed through AEM Mobile and the AEM Mobile APIs. Licensee and its licensors owns the Licensee Products and Services, subject to Adobe’s underlying intellectual property in AEM Mobile and the AEM Mobile APIs and content. Except as expressly stated in section 2.1, Licensee acquires no other licenses under any intellectual property rights of Adobe. All other rights are reserved by Adobe and its licensors.

6. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

6.1 No Implied Warranties. To the maximum extent permitted by law, Adobe provides the AEM Mobile APIs “as is”. Adobe, its affiliates, and third-party providers disclaim and make no other representation or warranty of any kind, express, implied or statutory, including representations, guarantees or warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, title, non-infringement, or accuracy. Licensee acknowledges that (A) neither Adobe nor its third party providers controls Licensee’s equipment or transfer of data over communications facilities (including the Internet); and (B) the AEM Mobile APIs may be subject to limitations, interruptions, delays, cancellations and other problems inherent in the use of the communications facilities (including search engines and social media channels). Adobe and its third party providers are not responsible for any interruptions, delays, cancellations, delivery failures, data loss, content corruption, packet loss, or other damage resulting from these problems.

6.2 Limitation of Damages. In no event is Adobe liable for any of the following arising out of or concerning this Agreement, however caused: special, indirect, moral, consequential, incidental, punitive or exemplary damages; loss of profits, use or revenue, business interruption; loss or corruption of data or failure to access the AEM Mobile APIs. This applies regardless of the form or source of any claim or loss, whether the claim or loss was foreseeable and whether Adobe has been advised of the possibility of the claim or loss. The foregoing limitations, exclusions and limitations will apply to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, even if any remedy fails its essential purpose. Adobe’s maximum cumulative liability arising from or related to this Agreement for any cause whatsoever, regardless of the form of any claim or action, whether based in contract, tort, or any other legal theory, will not exceed $100.

7. TERM AND TERMINATION.

The term of this Agreement shall be perpetual unless termination as stated below. Adobe may terminate this agreement (1) immediately upon written notice if Licensee fails to comply with any term of this Agreement; or (2) for convenience upon 30 days written notice. Licensee will immediately cease use of the DPI APIs upon termination of this agreement and stop distribution of the Licensee Products and Services. Sections 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 will survive termination of this agreement.

8. INDEMNIFICATION.

Licensee will defend and indemnify Adobe, its affiliates, directors, officers, employees, and users, against all liabilities, damages, losses, costs, fees, and expenses relating to any allegation or third party legal proceeding arising from (A) Licensee’s misuse or Licensee’s end users misuse of the AEM Mobile APIs; (B) Licensee’s violation or Licensee’s end users violation of this agreement; (C) any content or data routed into or used with the AEM Mobile APIs by Licensee, those acting on Licensee’s behalf or Licensee’s end users; or (D) the Licensee Products and Services.
9. GENERAL PROVISIONS

9.1 Governing Law, Venue. This Agreement is governed by and construed under the laws of the state of California, without regard to any conflict of law rules or principles, and excluding the application of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods. The parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of competent jurisdiction in the County of Santa Clara, state of California, provided however, Adobe will have the right to pursue claims against Licensee in any other jurisdiction worldwide to enforce its rights under this Agreement or to enforce its intellectual property rights.

9.2 Notices. All notices required under this Agreement will be in writing and will be by personal delivery or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, and will be deemed given upon personal delivery or five days after deposit in the mail. Notices for Adobe will be sent to the attention of the General Counsel at Adobe Systems Incorporated, 345 Park Ave, San Jose, CA 95110, USA.

9.3 Assignment. Licensee will not assign or transfer any rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of Adobe. Adobe may assign this Agreement without restriction. Any such attempted assignment or transfer will be void.

9.4 Waiver, Modification. Neither party's waiver of the breach of any provision constitutes a waiver of that provision in any other instance. This Agreement may not be modified nor any rights under it waived, in whole or in part, except in writing signed by the parties.

9.5 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (together with the Adobe.com Terms of Use and Adobe Online Privacy Policy) constitute(s) the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter and supersedes all earlier agreements, understandings, proposals, discussions, negotiations, representations and warranties, both written and oral, regarding the subject matter. If there is any inconsistency between any of the above parts, the part listed later will prevail (to the extent of the inconsistency) over a part listed earlier.

9.6 Severability. If any term of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remainder of the term and this Agreement will continue in full force and effect.
